Home Chefs seeking shortcuts

It's no secret that the pandemic lockdowns inspired many consumers to hone their cooking skills, and that means they needed the tools to get the job done. Now, trend spotters say consumers are looking for home chef shortcuts: time-saving gadgets, oven-to-table cookware and serveware, pre-made mixes and easy-clean-up items help consumers keep up with their newly discovered culinary skills. For example, these products are headed for the Winter Atlanta Market, Jan. 11-18, at AmericasMart:

GOVERRE CHARCUTERIE MADE EASY PLATE

EL GUAPO MOJITO MIXER

Cocktail bitters, syrups and mixers made by hand with love in New Orleans. The ingredients are locally sourced and traceable to the farm level or third-party certified organic. The entire line is non-GMO, high fructose corn syrup free, soy free, gluten free and vegetarian, too. El Guapo is a woman-owned business.

The 16-ounce Mojito Mixer is the best party accessory. Simply pour over ice, add 2 ounces of white rum (or not if you prefer zero proof drinks) and fill to the brim with club soda. Garnish with mint before serving.

Pro tip: Throw this in a blender with ice and rum for the ultimate frozen treat.

HIC, HAROLD IMPORT COMPANY MRS. ANDERSON'S BAKING LASAGNA PAN

Mrs. Anderson's Lasagna Pan is specially designed for baking, boiling, roasting and serving. Its generous capacity is perfect for building deeply layered recipes such as lasagna, baked ziti and mac and cheese. It's beautifully crafted from high-fired ceramic with a scratch-free glaze for durability and uniform heat distribution, so foods bake evenly. Easy-hold handles on both sides offer a comfortable grip and secure transfer in and out of the oven and under the broiler. This award-winning Lasagna Pan is a versatile baking dish for quiche, casseroles, meat loaf, scalloped potatoes and desserts, and doubles nicely as a roasting pan and serving dish for vegetables. Cover leftovers with foil and store them in the fridge. When it's time for reheating, just pop it in the oven. It performs equally well as serveware for every dining occasion, from breakfast to lunch or brunch, for holiday meals, party buffets, even outdoor entertaining. It transitions beautifully from oven or broiler to the table and complements any setting. Safe for use in the microwave, oven, broiler (to 500 degrees Fahrenheit), and freezer. It resists staining, odors and cracking and won't transfer odors or flavors between uses. Dishwasher safe for easy cleanup.
