3. Anise French Harvest #4 Pot

The inspiration for developing the Anise line stemmed from classical English and French garden flair. The English Edwardian pots are reproductions and adaptations of this timeless style. In France various antique apple-picking crowns were found whose shape represented the region where they were harvested. That created a great template for creating certain styles with many more to come! Talented artisans throw each piece by hand. No molds used here! Color: Verde Natural. 6.5" h. x 6.5" in. dia.

4. Palo Santo Citronella Outdoor Incense

While burning Palo Santo wood is believed to cleanse negative energy and bring good fortune, it also shares a common property with citronella: both are an effective, all-natural insect repellent. This alluring combination produces a woody scent that mixes tea tree and cedar with citrus undertones. Our Palo Santo Citronella incense sticks are formulated for outdoor use and offer fragrance-filled, bug-free protection at your next outdoor gathering. Each 11" x 2.25" tube includes 50 one-hour incense sticks.
